

The Civil War: The First Year

Preface	xix
Introduction	xxi
Charleston Mercury : What Shall the South Carolina Legislature Do?, November 3, 1860
Calling a Secession Convention: November 1860	I
John G. Nicolay: Memoranda Regarding Abraham Lincoln, November 5–6, 1860
“Alarms from the South” : Illinois, November 1860	5
New-York Daily Tribune : Going to Go, November 9, 1860
The Threat of Secession: November 1860	8
Jefferson Davis to Robert Barnwell Rhett Jr., November 10, 1860
The Need for Southern Cooperation: November 1860	11
Benjamin Hill: Speech at Milledgeville, November 15, 1860
Debating Secession: Georgia, November 1860	14
New York Daily News : The Right of States to Secede, November 16, 1860
“States cannot exist disunited” : November 1860	34
Sam Houston to H. M. Watkins and Others, November 20, 1860
“I am for the Union as it is” : Texas, November 1860	37
George Templeton Strong: Diary, November 20, November 26–December 1, 1860
“Our sore national sickness” : New York, November 1860	43
Edward Bates: Diary, November 22, 1860
“This dangerous game” : Missouri, November 1860	48
William G. Brownlow to R. H. Appleton, November 29, 1860
The “Wicked Spirit” of Secession: Tennessee, November 1860	49
Frederick Douglass: The Late Election, December 1860
Lincoln and Slavery: December 1860	57

William T. Sherman to Thomas Ewing Sr. and to John Sherman, December 1, 1860 Secessionism in Louisiana: December 1860	63
James Buchanan: from the Annual Message to Congress, December 3, 1860 Washington, D.C., December 1860	67
J.D.B. DeBow: The Non-Slaveholders of the South, December 5, 1860 The Benefits of Slavery: December 1860	85
Joseph E. Brown to Alfred H. Colquitt and Others, December 7, 1860 Advocating Secession: Georgia, December 1860	98
Abraham Lincoln to John A. Gilmer, December 15, 1860 Restating Positions on Slavery: December 1860	109
New-York Daily Tribune : The Right of Secession, December 17, 1860 Rejecting Coercion: December 1860	111
Benjamin F. Wade: Remarks in the U.S. Senate, December 17, 1860 "I stand by the Union": December 1860	114
John J. Crittenden: Remarks in the U.S. Senate, December 18, 1860 A Compromise over Slavery: December 1860	128
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., December 18–20, 1860 "Meanness and rascality": Washington, D.C., December 1860	143
John G. Nicolay: Memorandum Regarding Abraham Lincoln, December 22, 1860 A Confidential Message: Illinois, December 1860	147
South Carolina Declaration of the Causes of Secession, December 24, 1860 Charleston, December 1860	149
Abner Doubleday: from Reminiscences of Forts Sumter and Moultrie in 1860–'61 Occupying Fort Sumter: South Carolina, December 1860	156
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, December 26–27, 1860 "A terrible revulsion of feeling": South Carolina, December 1860	163

Stephen F. Hale to Beriah Magoffin, December 27, 1860 Urging Kentucky to Secede: December 1860	165
Herman Melville: Misgivings "The tempest bursting": 1860	177
Mary Jones to Charles C. Jones Jr., January 3, 1861 "Sad foreboding": Georgia, January 1861	178
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., January 8, 1861 "All depends on Virginia": Washington, D.C., January 1861	180
Mississippi Declaration of the Causes of Secession, January 9, 1861 Jackson, January 1861	183
Elizabeth Blair Lee to Samuel Phillips Lee, December 25, January 9–10, 1861 "A warlike aspect": Washington, D.C., January 1861	186
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, January 9–13, 1861 The "Star of the West": South Carolina, January 1861	189
Jefferson Davis: Farewell Address in the U.S. Senate, January 21, 1861 Washington, D.C., January 1861	193
Robert E. Lee to George Washington Custis Lee, January 23, 1861 The Evils of Anarchy and Civil War: January 1861	199
Jefferson Davis: Inaugural Address, February 18, 1861 Montgomery, Alabama, February 1861	201
Frederick Douglass: The New President, March 1861 Hopes for Lincoln's Administration: March 1861	207
Abraham Lincoln: First Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861 Washington, D.C., March 1861	210
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, March 4, 1861 "That wretch Abraham Lincoln": North Carolina, March 1861	220
Alexander H. Stephens: "Corner-Stone" Speech, March 21, 1861 Vindicating Slavery: Georgia, March 1861	221

Edward Bates: Diary, March 9–April 8, 1861 Relieving Fort Sumter: Washington, D.C., March–April 1861	237
Gideon Welles: Memoir of Events, March 1861 Seward and Fort Sumter: Washington, D.C., March 1861	242
William H. Seward: Memorandum for the President, April 1, 1861 Challenging Lincoln: Washington, D.C., April 1861	248
Abraham Lincoln to William H. Seward, April 1, 1861 “ I must do it ”: Washington, D.C., April 1861	250
Mary Chesnut, Diary, April 7–15, 1861 The War Begins: South Carolina, April 1861	252
Abner Doubleday: from Reminiscences of Forts Sumter and Moultrie in 1860–’61 Bombardment and Surrender: South Carolina, April 1861 . . .	261
George Templeton Strong: Diary, April 13–16, 1861 New Yorkers Respond: April 1861	269
The New York Times : The People and the Issue, April 15, 1861 Vindicating National Honor: April 1861	275
Pittsburgh Post : The War Begun—The Duty of American Citizens, April 15, 1861 Fighting “the mad rebellion” : April 1861	278
William Howard Russell: from My Diary North and South , April 17, 1861 Celebration in Charleston: South Carolina, April 1861	281
Charles C. Jones Sr. to Charles C. Jones Jr., April 20, 1861 “ Infiel ” Enemies: Georgia, April 1861	294
John B. Jones: Diary, April 15–22, 1861 Secessionism in Richmond: Virginia, April 1861	297
John W. Hanson: from Historical Sketch of the Old Sixth Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers The Baltimore Riot: April 1861	305
Ulysses S. Grant to Frederick Dent, April 19, 1861, and to Jesse Root Grant, April 21, 1861 “ I have but one sentiment now ”: Illinois, April 1861	310

Jefferson Davis: Message to the Confederate Congress, April 29, 1861 Montgomery, Alabama, April 1861	313
Frederick Douglass: How to End the War, May 1861 "Strike down slavery itself": May 1861	333
Walt Whitman: First O Songs for a Prelude New York, Spring 1861	336
Winfield Scott to George B. McClellan, May 3, 1861 A Strategic Plan: May 1861	339
Charles B. Haydon: Diary, May 3–12, 1861 Life in Army Camp: Michigan, May 1861	341
Ulysses S. Grant to Jesse Root Grant, May 6, 1861 Predicting a Short War: May 1861	347
John Hay: Diary, May 7–10, 1861 Life in the Executive Mansion: Washington, D.C., May 1861	350
Judith W. McGuire: Diary, May 10, 1861 Fearing Attack in Alexandria: Virginia, May 1861	355
William T. Sherman to John Sherman, May 11, 1861 Rioting in St. Louis: Missouri, May 1861	358
Benjamin F. Butler to Winfield Scott, May 24, 1861 Slaves Seeking Freedom: Virginia, May 1861	361
The New York Times : General Butler and the Contraband of War, June 2, 1861 Defining Runaway Slaves: Virginia, May 1861	364
Kate Stone: Journal, May 15–27, 1861 "Our Cause is just": Louisiana, May 1861	369
George Templeton Strong: Diary, May 29–June 2, 1861 A Visit to Washington: May–June 1861	376
John Brown's Body, May 1861 Massachusetts, May 1861	383
Roger B. Taney: Opinion in Ex parte Merryman , June 1, 1861 The Writ of Habeas Corpus: Maryland, May 1861	386
Henry A. Wise: Speech at Richmond, June 1, 1861 "I rejoice in this war": Virginia, June 1861	401

Charles C. Jones Jr. to Charles C. Jones Sr. and Mary Jones, June 10, 1861 The "blinded, fanatical" North: Georgia, June 1861	404
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., June 10–11, 1861 Anglo-American Relations: London, June 1861	407
John Ross to Benjamin McCulloch, June 17, 1861 Cherokee Neutrality: Indian Territory, June 1861	412
James Russell Lowell: The Pickens-and-Stealin's Rebellion, June 1861 Emancipating Northern Opinion: June 1861	415
Abraham Lincoln: Message to Congress in Special Session, July 4, 1861 Washington, D.C., July 1861	427
Kate Stone: Journal, July 4, 1861 An Unobserved Holiday: Louisiana, July 1861	443
Ulysses S. Grant: from Personal Memoirs of U. S. Grant Facing the Enemy: Missouri, July 1861	444
Sallie Brock: from Richmond During the War Defeats in Western Virginia: July 1861	447
Sullivan Ballou to Sarah Ballou, July 14, 1861 A Farewell Letter: July 1861	451
Charles Minor Blackford: from Letters from Lee's Army Battle of Manassas: Virginia, July 1861	454
William Howard Russell: from My Diary North and South The Union Army Retreats: Virginia, July 1861	464
Samuel J. English to his Mother, July 24, 1861 "Death and confusion everywhere": Virginia, July 1861	491
Emma Holmes: Diary, July 22–23, 1861 News of Manassas: South Carolina, July 1861	495
Elizabeth Blair Lee to Samuel Phillips Lee, July 23, 1861 Straggling Soldiers: Washington, D.C., July 1861	498
Walt Whitman: from Specimen Days "A terrible shock": Washington, D.C., July 1861	500
Abraham Lincoln: Memoranda on Military Policy, July 23, 1861 Washington, D.C., July 1861	504

Mary Chesnut: Diary, July 24, 1861 Celebrating Victory: Virginia, July 1861	506
Crittenden-Johnson Resolutions, July 22–25, 1861 Noninterference with Slavery: July 1861	522
George B. McClellan to Mary Ellen McClellan, July 27, 1861 Assuming Command: Washington, D.C., July 1861	524
William T. Sherman to Ellen Ewing Sherman, July 28, 1861 “ Our men are not good Soldiers ”: July 1861	526
Horace Greeley to Abraham Lincoln, July 29, 1861 “ Our late awful disaster ”: July 1861	531
George B. McClellan: Memorandum for the President, August 2, 1861 Washington, D.C., August 1861	533
Confiscation Act, August 6, 1861 A Measure Against Slavery: August 1861	538
George B. McClellan to Mary Ellen McClellan, August 8, 9, and 16, 1861 “ The Presdt is an idiot ”: August 1861	540
E. F. Ware: from The Lyon Campaign in Missouri Battle of Wilson’s Creek: Missouri, August 1861	543
W. E. Woodruff: from With the Light Guns in ’61–’65 Confederate Artillery at Wilson’s Creek: Missouri, August 1861	554
John C. Frémont: Proclamation, August 30, 1861 Freeing the Slaves of Rebels: Missouri, August 1861	561
Abraham Lincoln to John C. Frémont, September 2, 1861 Modifying a Proclamation: September 1861	563
Frederick Douglass: Fighting Rebels with Only One Hand, September 1861 The Need for Black Soldiers: September 1861	564
Abraham Lincoln to Orville H. Browning, September 22, 1861 Revoking Frémont’s Proclamation: September 1861	568
John Ross: Message to the National Council, October 9, 1861 A Cherokee-Confederate Alliance: Indian Territory, October 1861	571

Henry Livermore Abbott to Josiah Gardner Abbott, October 22, 1861 Battle of Ball's Bluff: Virginia, October 1861	576
George B. McClellan to Mary Ellen McClellan, October 25, 26, 30, and 31, 1861 Replacing Winfield Scott: October 1861	581
Charles Francis Adams Jr. to Henry Adams, November 5, 1861 "I am tired of incompetents": November 1861	585
George B. McClellan to Samuel L. M. Barlow, November 8, 1861 Preparing for the Next Battle: November 1861	587
Ulysses S. Grant to Jesse Root Grant, November 8, 1861 Battle of Belmont: Missouri, November 1861	590
Lunsford P. Yandell Jr. to Lunsford Yandell Sr., November 10, 1861 A Doctor at Belmont: Missouri, November 1861	592
Samuel Francis Du Pont to Sophie Du Pont, November 13–15, 1861 The Capture of Port Royal: South Carolina, November 1861	596
Sam Mitchell: Narrative of the capture of the Sea Islands, November 1861 A Former Slave Remembers: South Carolina, November 1861	603
Henry Tucker: God in the War, November 15, 1861 A Confederate Sermon: Georgia, November 1861	605
Jefferson Davis: Message to the Confederate Congress, November 18, 1861 Richmond, Virginia, November 1861	627
Harper's Weekly : The Great Review The Army of the Potomac: Virginia, November 1861	636
Ulysses S. Grant to Jesse Root Grant, November 27, 1861 Slavery and the Press: November 1861	639
Sallie Brock: from Richmond During the War Shortages and Inflation: Virginia, Autumn 1861	641
Benjamin Moran, Journal, November 27–December 3, 1861 The "Trent" Affair: London, November–December 1861	645

Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., November 30, 1861 War with England: London, November 1861	651
Abraham Lincoln, Annual Message to Congress, December 3, 1861 Washington, D.C., December 1861	653
Charles Francis Adams Jr. to Henry Adams, December 10, 1861 Preparing to Enlist: Boston, December 1861	672
Let My People Go A Song of the Contrabands: Virginia, 1861	674
Robert E. Lee to George Washington Custis Lee, December 29, 1861 Not Relying on Foreign Aid: December 1861	678
Edward Bates: Diary, December 31, 1861 The President's Duty to Act: Washington, D.C., December 1861	681
Irwin McDowell: Memorandum, January 10–13, 1862 Lincoln and McClellan: Washington, D.C., January 1862 . . .	683
Montgomery C. Meigs, Memoir of Meetings with President Lincoln, January 10–13, 1862 "The bottom is out of the tub": Washington, D.C., January 1862	691
Edwin M. Stanton to Charles A. Dana, January 24, 1862 "This army has got to fight": January 1862	693
Chronology	697
Biographical Notes	707
Note on the Texts	729
Notes	744
Index	793

The Civil War: The Second Year

Preface.	xxi
Introduction.	xxiii
Frederick Douglass: What Shall Be Done with the Slaves If Emancipated?, January 1862 “ Do nothing with them ”: January 1862.	I
John Boston to Elizabeth Boston, January 12, 1862 A Slave Escapes: Virginia, January 1862	6
Salmon P. Chase: Journal, January 6, 1862 “ Vigorous prosecution of the war ”: Washington, D.C., January 1862	8
Abraham Lincoln to Don Carlos Buell and Henry W. Halleck, January 13, 1862 “ My general idea of this war ”: January 1862.	10
Abraham Lincoln: President’s General War Order No. 1, January 27, 1862; President’s Special War Order No. 1, January 31, 1862 War Orders: January 1862	12
George B. McClellan to Edwin M. Stanton, February 3, 1862 A Campaign Against Richmond: February 1862	14
Julia Ward Howe: The Battle Hymn of the Republic, February 1862; from Reminiscences, 1819–1899 “ His terrible swift sword ”: February 1862.	24
The New York Times : An Important Arrest, February 11, 1862; The Ball’s Bluff Disaster—Gen. McClellan and Gen. Stone, April 12, 1863 A General is Arrested: Washington, D.C., February 1862	28

Lew Wallace: from An Autobiography Attack on Fort Donelson: Tennessee, February 1862	35
John Kennerly Farris to Mary Farris, October 31, 1862 Fort Donelson Surrenders: Tennessee, February 1862	47
Henry Walke: The Western Flotilla at Fort Donelson, Island Number Ten, Fort Pillow and Memphis The River War: February–June 1862	54
Braxton Bragg to Judah P. Benjamin, February 15, 1862 Confederate Strategy: February 1862	77
John B. Jones: Diary, February 8–28, 1862 “ These calamities ”: Virginia, February 1862	80
Jefferson Davis: Message to the Confederate Congress, February 25, 1862 Richmond, Virginia, February 1862	84
George E. Stephens to the Weekly Anglo-African , March 2, 1862 “ The boldest feat ”: Maryland, March 1862	89
Orpheus C. Kerr: from The Orpheus C. Kerr Papers “ All quiet on the Potomac ”: March 1862	93
Dabney H. Maury: Recollections of the Elkhorn Campaign Battle of Elkhorn Tavern: Arkansas, March 1862	99
Abraham Lincoln: Message to Congress on Compensated Emancipation, March 6, 1862; Abraham Lincoln to James A. McDougall, March 14, 1862 Washington, D.C., March 1862	110
Catesby ap Roger Jones: from “Services of the ‘Virginia’ (Merrimac)” A Naval Revolution: Virginia, March 1862	114
Nathaniel Hawthorne: from “Chiefly About War-Matters” A Visit to Washington and Virginia: March 1862	121
George B. McClellan to the Army of the Potomac, March 14, 1862, and to Samuel L. M. Barlow, March 16, 1862 The “grand campaign” opens: Virginia, March 1862	138

Charles Francis Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., April 4, 1862 Britain and the Ironclads: London, April 1862	141
Emily Dickinson to Louise and Frances Norcross, late March 1862 "His big heart shot away": Massachusetts, March 1862	142
Frederick Douglass: The War and How to End It, March 25, 1862 "The lesson of the hour": March 1862	144
Abraham Lincoln to George B. McClellan, April 9, 1862 "But you must act": Washington, D.C., April 1862	155
Ulysses S. Grant to Commanding Officer, Advance Forces, April 6, 1862; to Julia Dent Grant, April 8, 1862; to Nathaniel H. McLean, April 9, 1862; to Jesse Root Grant, April 26, 1862; and to Elihu B. Washburne, May 14, 1862 Battle of Shiloh: Tennessee, April 1862	157
William T. Sherman to Ellen Ewing Sherman, April 11, 1862 "We caught the first thunder": Tennessee, April 1862	165
George W. Dawson to Laura Amanda Dawson, April 26, 1862 "They ran in every direction": Tennessee, April 1862	168
Herman Melville: Shiloh, April 1862 "The church so lone": April 1862	171
Confederate Conscription Acts, April 16 and 21, 1862 Richmond, Virginia, April 1862	172
Abraham Lincoln: Message to Congress, April 16, 1862 Abolishing Slavery in the District of Columbia: April 1862	178
John Russell Bartlett: The "Brooklyn" at the Passage of the Forts Running the Gauntlet: Louisiana, April 1862	180
George Hamilton Perkins to Susan G. Perkins, April 27, 1862 The Fall of New Orleans: Louisiana, April 1862	194
Charles S. Wainwright: Diary, May 5, 1862 Battle of Williamsburg: Virginia, May 1862	199

John B. Jones: Diary, May 14–19, 1862 “A critical condition”: Virginia, May 1862	210
Garland H. White to Edwin M. Stanton, May 7, 1862 “A black regiment”: Canada, May 1862	213
Abraham Lincoln: Proclamation Revoking General Hunter’s Emancipation Order, May 19, 1862 Washington, D.C., May 1862	215
Richard Taylor: from Destruction and Reconstruction Meeting Stonewall Jackson: Virginia, May 1862	218
Elizabeth Blair Lee to Samuel Phillips Lee, May 26, 1862 “The progress of events”: Washington, D.C., May 1862	224
Thomas O. Moore: To the People of Louisiana, May 24, 1862 “No similar instance of infamy”: Louisiana, May 1862	227
Lord Palmerston to Charles Francis Adams, June 11, 1862; Benjamin Moran: Journal, June 25, 1862 “Revolting outrages”: London, June 1862	230
Henry Ropes to William Ropes, June 3–4, 1862 Battle of Fair Oaks: Virginia, May–June 1862	233
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, June 5, 1862 A Military Assessment: Virginia, June 1862	236
David Hunter to Edwin M. Stanton, June 23, 1862 Arming Freed Slaves: South Carolina, June 1862.	238
Kate Stone: Journal, June 29–July 5, 1862 Fear of the “Yankees”: Louisiana, June–July 1862	241
Edward Porter Alexander: from Fighting for the Confederacy The Seven Days Begin: Virginia, June 1862.	246
Charles A. Page: from Letters of a War Correspondent Battle of Gaines’s Mill: Virginia, June 1862	258
George B. McClellan to Edwin M. Stanton, June 28, 1862 An Accusation of Betrayal: Virginia, June 1862	265
Abraham Lincoln to William H. Seward, June 28, 1862 “The present condition of the war”: Washington, D.C., June 1862	267

Charles B. Haydon: Journal, June 25–July 1, 1862 The Union Retreat: Virginia, June–July 1862	269
Asa D. Smith: Narrative of the Seven Days' Battles Wounded at Glendale: Virginia, June–July 1862	277
Judith W. McGuire: Diary, June 27–30, 1862 "Our beleaguered city": Virginia, June 1862	290
Sallie Brock: from Richmond During the War "Death held a carnival": Virginia, June–July 1862	294
Sara Agnes Pryor: from Reminiscences of Peace and War A Richmond Hospital: Virginia, June–July 1862	297
Whitelaw Reid: General Hunter's Negro Soldiers, July 6, 1862 Debating Black Soldiers: Washington, D.C., July 1862	303
George B. McClellan to Abraham Lincoln, July 7, 1862 "Civil and military policy": Virginia, July 1862	306
Thomas H. Dudley and J. Price Edwards: An Exchange, July 9, 10, and 16, 1862 Building a Confederate Cruiser: England, July 1862	309
Abraham Lincoln: Appeal to Border State Representatives for Compensated Emancipation, July 12, 1862 Washington, D.C., July 1862	314
Second Confiscation Act, July 17, 1862 Washington, D.C., July 1862	317
John Pope: Address to the Army of Virginia, July 14, 1862 "Success and glory": Washington, D.C., July 1862	323
John Pope: General Orders Nos. 5, 7, 11, July 18, 20, and 23, 1862 A Change in Policy: Washington, D.C., July 1862	325
Fitz John Porter to Joseph C. G. Kennedy, July 17, 1862 The "idol" of the army: Virginia, July 1862	329
August Belmont to Thurlow Weed, July 20, 1862 An Appeal for Negotiation: Rhode Island, July 1862	332
Salmon P. Chase to Richard C. Parsons, July 20, 1862 A "shameful" defeat: Washington, D.C., July 1862	338

Salmon P. Chase: Journal, July 22, 1862 Presidential Emancipation: Washington, D.C., July 1862 . . .	342
Abraham Lincoln: First Draft of the Emancipation Proclamation, July 22, 1862 Washington, D.C., July 1862	345
Francis B. Carpenter: from Six Months at the White House with Abraham Lincoln Postponing Emancipation: Washington, D.C., July 1862	347
Abraham Lincoln to Cuthbert Bullitt, July 28, 1862 Saving the Government: Washington, D.C., July 1862	349
Charles Sumner to John Bright, August 5, 1862 Cotton and Emancipation: Massachusetts, August 1862	352
Henry W. Halleck to George B. McClellan, August 6, 1862 Evacuating the Peninsula: Washington, D.C., August 1862 . . .	354
Memorial of a Committee of Citizens of Liberty County, Georgia, August 5, 1862 Fleeing Slaves: Georgia, August 1862	358
Confederate War Department: General Orders No. 60, August 21, 1862 Retaliation for Arming Slaves: Virginia, August 1862.	364
Abraham Lincoln: Address on Colonization, August 14, 1862 Washington, D.C., August 1862.	366
Abraham Lincoln to Horace Greeley, August 22, 1862 "I would save the Union": Washington, D.C., August 1862.	372
William T. Sherman to Thomas Hunton, August 24, 1862 Slavery and the Laws of War: Tennessee, August 1862	374
John Lothrop Motley to William H. Seward, August 26, 1862 Emancipation and Diplomacy: Austria, August 1862	377
Harriet Jacobs to William Lloyd Garrison, September 5, 1862 Aiding Contrabands: Washington, D.C., Summer 1862	382

Edward Porter Alexander: from Fighting for the Confederacy The Second Manassas Campaign: Virginia, August 1862 . . .	391
Charles Francis Adams Jr. to Charles Francis Adams, August 27, 1862 "Treachery": Washington, D.C., August 1862	400
John Hampden Chamberlayne to Martha Burwell Chamberlayne, September 6, 1862 "These great operations": Virginia and Maryland, August–September 1862	404
John Pope to Henry W. Halleck, September 1, 1862 "Unsoldierly and dangerous conduct": Virginia, September 1862	411
Clara Barton to John Shaver, September 4, 1862 Aiding the Wounded: Virginia and Washington, D.C., August–September 1862	413
Gideon Welles: Diary, August 31–September 1, 1862 "McClellan must go down": Washington, D.C., August–September 1862	416
John Hay: Diary, September 1, 1862 "We are whipped again": Washington, D.C., September 1862	425
Edward Bates: Remonstrance and Notes on Cabinet Meeting, September 2, 1862 "The Prest. was in deep distress": Washington, D.C., September 1862	428
Salmon P. Chase: Journal, September 2, 1862 "A series of failures": Washington, D.C., September 1862	430
George B. McClellan to Mary Ellen McClellan, September 2, 1862 Restored to Command: Washington, D.C., September 1862	433
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, September 3, 1862 Invading Maryland: Virginia, September 1862	435
George Templeton Strong: Diary, September 3–4, 1862 "A state of nausea": New York, September 1862	437
William Thompson Lusk to Elizabeth Freeman Lusk, September 6, 1862 A Demoralized Army: Washington, D.C., September 1862	439

Abraham Lincoln: Meditation on the Divine Will, c. early September 1862 "God wills this contest": Washington, D.C., September 1862 . . .	442
Lord Palmerston and Lord Russell: An Exchange, September 14, 17, and 23, 1862 Britain Considers Mediation: September 1862	443
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, September 8, 1862 "Recognition of our independence": Maryland, September 1862	446
Lewis H. Steiner: Diary, September 5–6, 1862 A "dirty and repulsive" army: Maryland, September 1862	448
James Richmond Boulware: Diary, September 4–14, 1862 A Confederate in Maryland: September 1862.	454
Alpheus S. Williams to George B. McClellan, September 13, 1862; Robert E. Lee: Special Orders No. 191, September 9, 1862 The Lost Order: Maryland, September 1862.	459
George W. Smalley: Narrative of Antietam, September 17, 1862 Battle of Antietam: Maryland, September 1862.	462
Rufus R. Dawes: from Service with the Sixth Wisconsin Volunteers Fight for the Cornfield: Maryland, September 1862.	479
Alpheus S. Williams to Irene and Mary Williams, September 22, 1862 "The infernal music": Maryland, September 1862	485
David L. Thompson: With Burnside at Antietam A Landscape Turned Red: Maryland, September 1862	496
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , September 20, 1862 After the Battle: Maryland, September 1862	503
Clifton Johnson: from Battleground Adventures "Our men had won": Maryland, September 1862.	505
Mary Bedinger Mitchell: A Woman's Recollections of Antietam "Noise, confusion, dust": Virginia, September 1862.	511

George B. McClellan to Mary Ellen McClellan, September 20, 1862 “ Our victory was complete ”: Maryland, September 1862	524
Ephraim Anderson: from Memoirs: Historical and Personal Battle of Iuka: Mississippi, September 1862	526
Gideon Welles: Diary, September 22, 1862 “ The cause of emancipation ”: Washington, D.C., September 1862	530
Abraham Lincoln: Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation, September 22, 1862; Proclamation Suspending the Writ of Habeas Corpus, September 24, 1862 Washington, D.C., September 1862	533
L. A. Whitely to James Gordon Bennett, September 24, 1862 “ The air is thick with revolution ”: Washington, D.C., September 1862	538
George B. McClellan to William H. Aspinwall, September 26, 1862 “ Servile war ” and “ despotism ”: Maryland, September 1862	540
Abraham Lincoln: Record of Dismissal of John J. Key, September 26–27, 1862 “ That is not the game ”: Washington, D.C., September 1862	541
Fitz John Porter to Manton Marble, September 30, 1862 “ Proclamations of a political coward ”: Maryland, September 1862	543
Braxton Bragg: To the People of the Northwest, September 26, 1862 A Confederate Invasion: Kentucky, September 1862	550
Ralph Waldo Emerson: The President’s Proclamation, September 1862 “ An event worth the dreadful war ”: Massachusetts, September 1862	554
Frederick Douglass: Emancipation Proclaimed, October 1862 “ Your deliverance draws nigh! ”: October 1862	561

Debate in the Confederate Senate on Retaliation for the Emancipation Proclamation, September 29 and October 1, 1862 Richmond, Virginia, October 1862	567
The Times of London: Editorial on the Emancipation Proclamation, October 7, 1862 "This gigantic wickedness": London, October 1862	572
George B. McClellan to Abraham Lincoln, October 7, 1862 Obeying Civil Authority: Maryland, October 1862	576
Oscar L. Jackson: from The Colonel's Diary Battle of Corinth: Mississippi, October 1862	578
Charles B. Labruzan: Journal, October 4, 1862 "An awful day": Mississippi, October 1862	585
J. Montgomery Wright: Notes of a Staff-Officer at Perryville Battle of Perryville: Kentucky, October 1862	589
Sam R. Watkins: from "Co. Aytch," Mauvy Grays , First Tennessee Regiment "This grand havoc of battle": Kentucky, October 1862	593
Abraham Lincoln to George B. McClellan, October 13, 1862 "Your over-cautiousness": Washington, D.C., October 1862	600
Lord Palmerston to Lord Russell, October 2 and 22, 1862 Reconsidering Mediation: England, October 1862	603
Charles Sumner to John Bright, October 28, 1862 "The Presdt. is in earnest": Massachusetts, October 1862	606
Francis Preston Blair to Montgomery Blair, November 7, 1862 "An auger too dull to take hold": Washington, D.C., November 1862	609
George G. Meade to Margaret Meade, November 8, 1862 McClellan's Dismissal: Virginia, November 1862	611
Orville H. Browning: Diary, November 29, 1862 Lincoln and McClellan: Washington, D.C., November 1862	614

Abraham Lincoln: Annual Message to Congress, December 1, 1862 Washington, D.C., December 1862	617
Edward Porter Alexander: from Fighting for the Confederacy Battle of Fredericksburg: Virginia, December 1862	640
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , December 15 and 17, 1862 "Murderous butchery": Virginia, December 1862	657
Henry Livermore Abbott to Josiah Gardner Abbott, December 14, 1862, and to George B. Perry, December 17, 1862 "Thoroughly licked": Virginia, December 1862	660
Clifton Johnson: from Battleground Adventures "An awful day": Virginia, December 1862	664
Walt Whitman: from Specimen Days "Hundreds die every day": Virginia, December 1862	669
Louisa May Alcott: from Hospital Sketches "Torn and shattered": District of Columbia, December 1862	671
Orville H. Browning: Diary, December 18, 1862 A Cabinet Crisis: Washington, D.C., December 1862.	683
Gideon Welles: Diary, December 19–20, 1862 Lincoln Resolves the Crisis: Washington, D.C., December 1862	685
Harper's Weekly : The Reverse at Fredericksburg, December 27, 1862 "Sickness, disgust, and despair": December 1862	693
George Templeton Strong: Diary, December 27, 1862 Lincoln and Emancipation: New York, December 1862	696
Fitz John Porter to Samuel L. M. Barlow, December 29, 1862 Porter's Court-Martial: Washington, D.C., December 1862	699
Cyrus F. Boyd: Diary, December 22–25, 1862 Looting in Holly Springs: Mississippi, December 1862.	702

Jefferson Davis: Address to the Mississippi Legislature, December 26, 1862 Jackson, December 1862	706
William T. Sherman to John Sherman, January 6, 1863 Battle of Chickasaw Bayou: Mississippi, December 1862.	724
Samuel Sawyer, Pearl P. Ingalls, and Jacob G. Forman to Samuel R. Curtis, December 29, 1862 Mistreatment of Contrabands: Arkansas, December 1862 . . .	727
Ira S. Owens: from Greene County in the War Battle of Stones River: Tennessee, December 1862– January 1863	729
Lot D. Young: from Reminiscences of a Soldier of the Orphan Brigade “ Bloody and useless sacrifice ”: Tennessee, December 1862– January 1863	733
Ambrose E. Burnside to Abraham Lincoln, January 1, 1863 An Offer to Resign: Washington D.C., January 1863.	739
Abraham Lincoln to Henry W. Halleck, January 1, 1863 “ You fail me precisely ”: Washington, D.C., January 1863	741
Abraham Lincoln: Final Emancipation Proclamation, January 1, 1863 Washington, D.C., January 1863	742
Benjamin Rush Plumly to Abraham Lincoln, January 1, 1863 Celebrating Emancipation: Philadelphia, January 1863	745
Abraham Lincoln to John A. McClernand, January 8, 1863 “ Broken eggs can not be mended ”: Washington, D.C., January 1863	748
Chronology	753
Biographical Notes	764
Note on the Texts	798
Notes	816
Index	853

The Civil War: The Third Year

Preface.	xxiii
Introduction.	xxv
Edmund DeWitt Patterson: Journal, January 20, 1863 Picket Duty and Snowballs: Virginia, January 1863	I
Theodore A. Dodge: Journal, January 21–24, 1863 The Mud March: Virginia, January 1863	3
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., January 23, 1863 Emancipation and Public Opinion: London, January 1863	9
George G. Meade to Margaret Meade, January 23, 26, and 28, 1863 A Change in Command: Virginia, January 1863	11
Abraham Lincoln to Joseph Hooker, January 26, 1863 Advising a New Commander: Washington, D.C., January 1863	18
John A. Andrew to Francis Shaw, January 30, 1863 Raising a Black Regiment: Massachusetts, January 1863	20
William Parker Cutler: Diary, February 2 and 9, 1863 Debating Black Soldiers: Washington, D.C., February 1863	23
George Templeton Strong: Diary, February 3–5, 1863 “These be dark blue days”: New York, February 1863	25
Oliver W. Norton to Edwin Norton, February 6, 1863 “The soldier’s pest”: Virginia, February 1863	28
Robert E. Lee to Mary Lee, February 8, 1863 Short Rations: Virginia, February 1863	32
Robert Gould Shaw to Annie Haggerty, February 8, 1863 Accepting a Colonelcy: Virginia, February 1863	34
Richard Cobden to Charles Sumner, February 13, 1863 Emancipation and Intervention: London, February 1863	36
Isaac Funk: Speech in the Illinois State Senate, February 14, 1863 “These traitors right here”: Springfield, February 1863	39

Taylor Peirce to Catharine Peirce, February 16, 1863 "His wife crying over him": Missouri, February 1863	44
William T. Sherman to Thomas Ewing Sr., February 17, 1863, and to John Sherman, February 18, 1863 The Menace of the Press: Louisiana, February 1863	47
Clement L. Vallandigham: Speech in Congress, February 23, 1863 Opposing Conscription: Washington, D.C., February 1863 . . .	57
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , February 25, 1863 "Vile and traitorous resolutions": Virginia, February 1863 . .	90
Charles C. Jones Jr. to Charles C. Jones Sr. and Mary Jones, March 3, 1863 Defending Fort McAllister: Georgia, March 1863	93
Charles C. Jones Sr. to Charles C. Jones Jr., March 4, 1863 "Fight more manfully than ever": Georgia, March 1863	96
Harriet Jacobs to Lydia Maria Child, March 18, 1863 Black Refugees: Virginia, March 1863	98
William Henry Harrison Clayton to Nide and Rachel Pugh, March 26, 1863 Unionist Refugees: Missouri, March 1863	101
Henry W. Halleck to Ulysses S. Grant, March 31, 1863 Withdrawing Slaves from the Enemy: Washington, D.C., March 1863	105
Frederick Law Olmsted to John Olmsted, April 1, 1863 The Army before Vicksburg: Louisiana, March 1863	108
Frederick Douglass: Why Should a Colored Man Enlist?, April 1863 "A war for Emancipation": April 1863	117
Jefferson Davis to William M. Brooks, April 2, 1863 Defending General Pemberton: Virginia, April 1863	122
John B. Jones: Diary, April 2-4, 1863 The Richmond Bread Riot: Virginia, April 1863	124
Whitelaw Reid to the Cincinnati Gazette , April 4, 1863 The Necessity of Fighting: April 1863	127

Charles S. Wainwright: Diary, April 5–12, 1863 Lincoln Reviews the Army: Virginia, April 1863	129
Francis Lieber: No Party Now, But All for Our Country, April 11, 1863 Loyalty to the Nation: New York, April 1863	134
Catharine Peirce to Taylor Peirce, April 12, 1863 Home and Family News: Iowa, April 1863	146
James A. Connolly to Mary Dunn Connolly, April 20, 1863 "Fighting goes like fortunes": Tennessee, April 1863	148
Ulysses S. Grant to Jesse Root Grant, April 21, 1863 "I am doing my best": Louisiana, April 1863	151
David Hunter to Jefferson Davis, April 23, 1863 Threatening Retaliation: South Carolina, April 1863	153
Kate Stone: Journal, April 25, 1863 "A night and day of terror": Louisiana, March–April 1863	155
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , April 26, 1863 Waiting to March: Virginia, April 1863	161
John Hampden Chamberlayne to Martha Burwell Chamberlayne, April 30, 1863 "Rain, mud, & night": Virginia, April 1863	166
Sarah Morgan: Diary, April 30, 1863 Expelling "enemies": Louisiana, April 1863	169
Samuel Pickens: Diary, May 1–3, 1863 Battle of Chancellorsville: Virginia, May 1863	172
Jedediah Hotchkiss: Journal, May 2–6, 1863 "Disorder reigned supreme": Virginia, May 1863	178
Taylor Peirce to Catharine Peirce, May 4, 1863 Battle of Port Gibson: Mississippi, May 1863	184
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, May 5–7, 9, and 11–12, 1863 "The nation's idol": North Carolina, May 1863	189
Charles F. Morse to His Family, May 7, 1863 "The great Joe Hooker": Virginia, May 1863	195
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , May 9 and 11, 1863 "Disgraceful and disastrous defeat": Virginia, May 1863	205

Charles B. Wilder: Testimony before the American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, May 9, 1863 Escaping Slavery: Virginia, May 1863	213
Thomas Wentworth Higginson: Journal, May 10, 1863 Commanding a Black Regiment: South Carolina, May 1863 .	216
Edward O. Guerrant: Diary, May 15, 1863 Mourning Stonewall Jackson: Kentucky, May 1863	219
George Richard Browder: Diary, May 17–26, 1863 Swearing Allegiance: Kentucky, May 1863	222
Harper's Weekly : The Arrest of Vallandigham, May 30, 1863 "The people can be trusted": New York, May 1863	226
Oliver W. Norton to Elizabeth Norton Poss, June 8, 1863 Meeting "Secesh" Civilians: Virginia, June 1863	229
Robert Gould Shaw to Annie Haggerty Shaw, June 9–13, 1863 The Burning of Darien: Georgia, June 1863	232
William Winters to Harriet Winters, June 9, 1863 Siege of Vicksburg: Mississippi, June 1863	238
Matthew M. Miller to His Aunt, June 10, 1863 Battle of Milliken's Bend: Louisiana, June 1863	240
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, June 10, 1863 "Dividing and weakening" the North: Virginia, June 1863 . .	243
William T. Sherman to John T. Swayne, June 11, 1863 "The hand of destruction": Mississippi, June 1863	246
Henry C. Whelan to Mary Whelan, June 11, 1863 Battle of Brandy Station: Virginia, June 1863	249
Abraham Lincoln to Erastus Corning and Others, June 12, 1863 The Constitution in Wartime: Washington, D.C., June 1863	254
William Henry Harrison Clayton to Amos and Grace Clayton, June 18, 1863, and to George Washington Clayton and John Quincy Adams Clayton, June 28, 1863 The Vicksburg Siege Continues: Mississippi, June 1863	264
Charles B. Haydon: Journal, June 20, 1863 "A soldier never knows": Mississippi, June 1863	270

William T. Sherman to Ellen Ewing Sherman, June 27, 1863 "They have sowed the wind": Mississippi, June 1863	273
Edmund DeWitt Patterson: Journal, June 24–30, 1863 Invading the North: Maryland and Pennsylvania, June 1863.	278
Lafayette McLaws to Emily McLaws, June 28, 1863 "A very different race": Pennsylvania, June 1863	281
Alpheus S. Williams to Irene and Mary Williams, June 29, 1863 Changing Commanders: Maryland, June 1863	285
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , June 30, 1863 "This business of war": Maryland, June 1863	288
Arthur James Lyon Fremantle: Diary, July 1–4, 1863 Battle of Gettysburg: Pennsylvania, July 1863	292
Samuel Pickens: Diary, July 1–3, 1863 "What terrible work": Pennsylvania, July 1863.	308
Francis Adams Donaldson: Narrative of Gettysburg, July 2–3, 1863 "This trial of the nerves": Pennsylvania, July 1863	312
Elizabeth Blair Lee to Samuel Phillips Lee, July 3 and 4–5, 1863 News of Gettysburg: Washington, D.C., July 1863	325
Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain to George B. Herendeen, July 6, 1863 Defending Little Round Top: Pennsylvania, July 1863.	328
Henry Livermore Abbott to Josiah Gardner Abbott, July 6, 1863 Defeating Pickett's Charge: Pennsylvania, July 1863.	333
Lafayette McLaws to Emily McLaws, July 7, 1863 "A series of terrible engagements": Pennsylvania, July 1863	338
Cornelia Hancock to Her Cousin, July 7, 1863, and to Ellen Hancock Child, July 8, 1863 A Nurse at Gettysburg: Pennsylvania, July 1863	341
Catharine Peirce to Taylor Peirce, July 5, 1863 Celebrating the Fourth: Iowa, July 1863	346

William Henry Harrison Clayton to Amos and Grace Clayton, July 5, 1863 Vicksburg Surrenders: Mississippi, July 1863	348
William T. Sherman to Ellen Ewing Sherman, July 5, 1863 "The event of the war": Mississippi, July 1863	352
William Winters to Harriet Winters, July 6, 1863 A "forlorn and forsaken" place: Mississippi, July 1863	357
Benjamin B. French: Journal, July 8, 1863 "The glorious result": Washington, D.C., July 1863	360
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, July 8–11, 1863 War News and Rumors: North Carolina, July 1863	362
George Hamilton Perkins to Susan G. Perkins, July 29, 1863 Fighting on the Mississippi: Louisiana, July 1863	368
Charles B. Haydon: Journal, July 11, 1863 "I must die very soon": Mississippi, July 1863	372
John Hay: Diary, July 11–15, 1863 "The Prest was deeply grieved": Washington, D.C., July 1863	375
Abraham Lincoln to Ulysses S. Grant, July 13, 1863 Acknowledging a Victory: Washington, D.C., July 1863	377
Abraham Lincoln to George G. Meade, July 14, 1863 "Your golden opportunity is gone": Washington, D.C., July 1863	378
Samuel Pickens: Diary, July 14, 1863 Crossing the Potomac: Maryland and West Virginia, July 1863	380
George Templeton Strong: Diary, July 13–17, 1863 The Draft Riots: New York, July 1863	382
Emma Holmes: Diary, July 16–19, 1863 Battle of Charleston Harbor: South Carolina, July 1863	390
Walter H. Taylor to Richard Taylor, July 17, 1863 "We crippled them severely": Virginia, July 1863	397
James Henry Gooding to the New Bedford Mercury , July 20, 1863 Battle of Fort Wagner: South Carolina, July 1863	402

Lewis Douglass to Amelia Loguen, July 20, 1863 "Not a man flinched": South Carolina, July 1863	405
Charlotte Forten: Journal, July 20–24, 1863 Mourning Colonel Shaw: South Carolina, July 1863	407
Maria Lydig Daly: Diary, July 23, 1863 "Four days of great anxiety": New York, July 1863	411
Herman Melville: The House-top "The Atheist roar of riot": New York, July 1863	414
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., July 23, 1863 News of Victory: London, July 1863	416
George G. Meade to Henry W. Halleck, July 31, 1863 Justifying a Decision: Virginia, July 1863	420
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, July 31, 1863 "I am alone to blame": Virginia, July 1863	423
Hannah Johnson to Abraham Lincoln, July 31, 1863 "What is right": New York, July 1863	425
Frederick Douglass to George L. Stearns, August 1, 1863 Refusing to Recruit: New York, August 1863	427
Frederick Douglass: The Commander-in-Chief and His Black Soldiers, August 1863 Demanding Retaliation: New York, August 1863	431
Walt Whitman to Lewis Kirk Brown, August 1, 11, and 15, 1863 Visiting the Wounded: Washington, D.C., August 1863	435
George E. Stephens to the Weekly Anglo-African , August 7, 1863 Demanding Equal Pay: South Carolina, August 1863	441
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, August 8, 1863 An Offer to Resign: Virginia, August 1863	447
Jefferson Davis to Robert E. Lee, August 11, 1863 Refusing a Resignation: Virginia, August 1863	450
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , August 10, 1863 Pillaging Wood: Virginia, August 1863	452

Frederick Douglass to George L. Stearns, August 12, 1863 Meeting the President: Washington, D.C., August 1863	457
William H. Neblett to Elizabeth Scott Neblett, August 18, 1863 Demoralization at Galveston: Texas, August 1863	461
Richard Cordley: Narrative of the Lawrence Massacre "Such a scene of horror": Kansas, August 1863	465
Ulysses S. Grant to Abraham Lincoln, August 23, 1863 The Impact of Black Troops: Illinois, August 1863	488
Jonathan Worth to Jesse G. Henshaw, August 24, 1863 Peace Meetings: North Carolina, August 1863	490
John M. Schofield to Thomas Ewing Jr., August 25, 1863 "The most radical remedy": Missouri, August 1863	492
Abraham Lincoln to James C. Conkling, August 26, 1863 Emancipation and Black Soldiers: Washington, D.C., August 1863	495
Ulysses S. Grant to Elihu B. Washburne, August 30, 1863 "Slavery is already dead": Mississippi, August 1863	500
Charles Francis Adams to Lord Russell, September 5, 1863 The Laird Rams: London, September 1863	502
Charles C. Jones Jr. to Mary Jones, September 6 and 9, 1863 The Siege of Charleston: South Carolina, September 1863	505
Raphael Semmes: Journal, September 16–24, 1863 The Raider Alabama: Cape Colony, September 1863	508
William T. Sherman to Henry W. Halleck, September 17, 1863 Reconstruction: Mississippi, September 1863	512
William W. Heartsill: Journal, September 17–28, 1863 Battle of Chickamauga: Georgia, September 1863	521
John S. Jackman: Diary, September 18–21, 1863 "Lying so thick over the field": Georgia, September 1863	531
Kate Cumming: Journal, September 28–October 1, 1863 "The nameless dead": Georgia, September–October 1863	535
Jefferson Davis: Speech at Missionary Ridge, October 10, 1863 Tennessee, October 1863	546

Oliver W. Norton to Elizabeth Norton Poss, October 15, 1863 Becoming an Officer: Washington, D.C., October 1863	548
Jefferson Davis: Speech at Wilmington, November 5, 1863 North Carolina, November 1863	551
Walter H. Taylor to Bettie Saunders, November 15, 1863 "We have no fears": Virginia, November 1863	555
Cornelia Hancock to an Unknown Correspondent, November 15, 1863 Contraband Hospital: Washington, D.C., November 1863 . . .	560
John Hay: Diary, November 18–19, 1863 A Trip to Gettysburg: Pennsylvania, November 1863	562
Abraham Lincoln: Address at Gettysburg, November 19, 1863 Pennsylvania, November 1863	566
Petition from the Colored Citizens of Beaufort, November 20, 1863 Protesting Impressment: North Carolina, November 1863 . . .	568
William Wrenshall Smith: Journal, November 13–25, 1863 Battle of Chattanooga: Tennessee, November 1863	569
Montgomery C. Meigs: Journal, November 23–25, 1863 "Wild with excitement": Tennessee, November 1863	582
James A. Connolly to Mary Dunn Connolly, November 26 and December 7, 1863 "The grandest sight I ever saw": Tennessee and Georgia, November 1863	590
Theodore Lyman: Journal, November 26–December 2, 1863 The Mine Run Campaign: Virginia, November–December 1863	601
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , November 29 and December 8, 1863 A Soldier at Mine Run: Virginia, November–December 1863	611
George G. Meade to Margaret Meade, December 2 and 7, 1863 "My conscience is clear": Virginia, December 1863	622
Frederick Douglass: Our Work Is Not Done, December 4, 1863 "Every free man a voter": Pennsylvania, December 1863 . . .	627

Abraham Lincoln: Annual Message to Congress, December 8, 1863 Washington, D.C., December 1863	637
Abraham Lincoln: Proclamation of Amnesty and Reconstruction, December 8, 1863 Washington, D.C., December 1863	654
George Templeton Strong: Diary, December 11–13, 1863 Subduing the South: New York, December 1863	658
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, December 11, 1863 “ One misfortune follows another ”: North Carolina, December 1863	661
Mary Chesnut: Diary, January 1, 1864 “ God help my country ”: Virginia, January 1864.	664
Judith W. McGuire: Diary, January 1, 1864 “ And yet we must go on ”: Virginia, January 1864.	674
Patrick R. Cleburne: Memorandum on Emancipation and Enlisting Black Soldiers, January 2, 1864 Sacrificing Slavery: Georgia, January 1864	677
William T. Sherman to Roswell M. Sawyer, January 31, 1864 “ They have appealed to War ”: Mississippi, January 1864	687
Lois Bryan Adams to the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune , February 8 and 23, 1864 Meeting “Father Abraham” : Washington, D.C., February 1864	693
Francis J. Higginson to John A. Dahlgren, February 18, 1864 Sinking of the Housatonic: South Carolina, February 1864	701
James H. Tomb: Notes on the H. L. Hunley , January 1865 A Submarine Torpedo Boat: South Carolina, October 1863– February 1864	703
Judith W. McGuire: Diary, February 28, 1864 A Soldier’s Widow: Virginia, February 1864.	705
John Paris: Sermon Preached at Kinston, February 28, 1864 Hanging Deserters: North Carolina, February 1864	708
Oliver W. Norton to Elizabeth Norton Poss, February 29, 1864 Battle of Olustee: Florida, February 1864	723

John B. Jones: Diary, March 1–2 and 5, 1864 The Kilpatrick-Dahlgren Raid: Virginia, March 1864	728
Ulysses S. Grant to William T. Sherman, March 4, 1864 Summoned to Washington: Tennessee, March 1864	733
William T. Sherman to Ulysses S. Grant, March 10, 1864 “Come out West”: Tennessee, March 1864	735
Chronology	739
Biographical Notes	755
Note on the Texts	792
Notes	809
Index	883

The Civil War: The Final Year

Preface.	xxi
Introduction.	xxiii
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, March 8, 1864 "Yankee wickedness": North Carolina, March 1864	I
Ellen Renshaw House: Diary, March 9–11, 19, 1864 Occupied Knoxville: Tennessee, March 1864	4
Scientific American : New Rolling Mills in Pittsburgh, March 26, 1864 Northern Industry: Pennsylvania, March 1864	9
Harriet Ann Jacobs and Louisa M. Jacobs to Lydia Maria Child, March 26, 1864 Opening a Freedmen's School: Virginia, March 1864	11
Jim Heiskell: Statement Regarding His Escape from Slavery, March 30, 1864 "My irons were taken off": Tennessee, March 1864	16
Susan C. Woolker to Zebulon B. Vance, April 3, 1864 Hungry Families: North Carolina, April 1864	19
Ulysses S. Grant to William T. Sherman, April 4, 1864 Planning the Spring Campaign: Washington, D.C., April 1864	21
William Winters to Harriet Winters, April 4, 1864 "A tear of sorrow": Louisiana, April 1864	24
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , April 7, 1864 Freedom and Slavery: Virginia, April 1864	27
Ellen Renshaw House: Diary, April 8, 1864 An Expulsion Order: Tennessee, April 1864	32
Lois Bryan Adams to the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune , April 9, 1864 "A proud day": Washington, D.C., April 1864	34
Achilles V. Clark to Judith Porter and Henrietta Ray, April 14, 1864 The Fort Pillow Massacre: Tennessee, April 1864	42

Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, April 15, 1864 Predicting Union Plans: Virginia, April 1864	45
The New York Times : The Black Flag, April 16, 1864 "Insatiate as fiends": April 1864	47
Abraham Lincoln: Address at Baltimore Sanitary Fair, April 18, 1864 Defining Liberty and Considering Retribution: Maryland, April 1864	51
R.H.C. to The Christian Recorder , April 30, 1864 "Take no prisoners": April 1864	54
Gideon Welles: Diary, May 3, 5-6, 1864 Debating Retaliation: Washington, D.C., May 1864	57
Petition from the Slaveholders of Randolph County, Alabama, May 6, 1864 Protesting Slave Impressment: Alabama, May 1864	60
Samuel W. Fiske to the Springfield Republican , May 3, 1864 "Our right cause": Virginia, May 1864	63
Theodore Lyman: Journal, May 4-7, 1864 Battle of the Wilderness: Virginia, May 1864	68
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , May 9, 1864 "The disaster came": Virginia, May 1864	85
J.F.J. Caldwell: from The History of a Brigade of South Carolinians "Another struggle with death": Virginia, May 1864	90
Horace Porter: from Campaigning with Grant Grant Turns South: Virginia, May 1864	100
Herman Melville: The Armies of the Wilderness "Strife in the pines": Virginia, May 1864	102
Ulysses S. Grant to Edwin M. Stanton and to Henry W. Halleck, May 11, 1864 "If it takes all summer": Virginia, May 1864	110
Charles Harvey Brewster to Martha Brewster, May 11, 1864; to Mary Brewster, May 13, 1864; and to Martha Brewster, May 15, 1864 Battle of Spotsylvania: Virginia, May 1864	112

J.F.J. Caldwell: from The History of a Brigade of South Carolinians The Bloody Angle: Virginia, May 1864	122
Edward A. Wild to Robert S. Davis, May 12, 1864 Whipping a Slavemaster: Virginia, May 1864	130
James A. Connolly to Mary Dunn Connolly, May 15 and 20, 1864 Battle of Resaca: Georgia, May 1864	133
Alpheus S. Williams to Mary Williams, May 20, 1864 "These sad fields": Georgia, May 1864	137
Samuel T. Foster: Diary, May 23–28, 1864 Battle of Pickett's Mill: Georgia, May 1864	140
Richard Taylor: General Orders No. 44, May 23, 1864 Proclaiming Victory: Louisiana, May 1864	147
Charles Harvey Brewster to Mary Brewster, May 23, 1864; to Martha Brewster, May 24, 1864; and to Mattie Brewster, May 26, 1864 "I am scared most to death": Virginia, May 1864	150
Eugene Forbes: Diary, May 24–27, 1864 Andersonville Prison: Georgia, May 1864	160
Charles Francis Adams Jr. to Charles Francis Adams, May 29, 1864 Appraising Grant: Virginia, May 1864	163
Lorenzo Thomas to Henry Wilson, May 30, 1864 Assessing Black Troops: May 1864	169
Cornelia Hancock to Her Sister, May 28, May 31–June 3, 1864 Behind the Union Lines: Virginia, May–June 1864	171
Frank Wilkeson: from Recollections of a Private Soldier in the Army of the Potomac Battle of Cold Harbor: Virginia, May–June 1864	178
Maria Lydig Daly: Diary, June 8, 1864 "Born anew in blood and tears": New York, June 1864	189
Robert Patrick to Alonzo Lewis, June 9, 1864 "The work of death": Georgia, June 1864	191
Judith W. McGuire: Diary, June 11, 1864 Ruined Plantations: Virginia, June 1864	195

Charles Harvey Brewster to Mattie Brewster, June 11, 1864 "Miserable long dreary days": Virginia, June 1864	199
Charles Francis Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., June 17, 1864 Completing "the great idea": London, June 1864	202
Charles B. Fisher: Diary, June 19–21, 1864 Fighting the Alabama: The English Channel, June 1864	205
Wilbur Fisk to The Green Mountain Freeman , June 19, 1864 Battle of Petersburg: Virginia, June 1864	211
Stephen Minot Weld to Stephen Minot Weld Sr., June 21, 1864 "Butchered time and again": Virginia, June 1864	216
George E. Chamberlin to Ephraim Chamberlin, June 27, 1864 "A horrid, hellish dream": Virginia, June 1864	218
Eugene Forbes: Diary, June 13–30, 1864 Life at Andersonville: Georgia, June 1864	222
William T. Sherman to Ellen Ewing Sherman, June 30, 1864 The Atlanta Campaign: Georgia, June 1864	232
Horace Greeley to Abraham Lincoln, July 7, 1864 An Appeal for Negotiations: New York, July 1864	235
John White Geary to Mary Geary, July 8, 1864 "An infinity of hills": Georgia, July 1864	238
Abraham Lincoln: Proclamation Concerning Reconstruction, July 8, 1864 Washington, D.C., July 1864	241
Abraham Lincoln to Horace Greeley, July 9, 1864 Conditions for Peace: Washington, D.C., July 1864	243
Eugene Forbes: Diary, July 11, 1864 Hanging the Andersonville Raiders: Georgia, July 1864	244
Henry Robinson Berkeley: Diary, July 4–13, 1864 Threatening Washington: Maryland, July 1864	246
Lois Bryan Adams to the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune , July 13 and 15, 1864 The Capital under Attack: Washington, D.C., July 1864	250
Ulysses S. Grant to Henry W. Halleck, July 14, 1864 Pursuing Early: Virginia, July 1864	256

Charles A. Dana to Ulysses S. Grant, July 15, 1864 "The deepest shame": Washington, D.C., July 1864	258
Abraham Lincoln: Offer of Safe Conduct for Peace Negotiators, July 18, 1864 "To Whom it may concern": Washington, D.C., July 1864	259
Clement C. Clay and James P. Holcombe to Horace Greeley, July 21, 1864 "War to the bitter end": Canada, July 1864	260
James R. Gilmore to the Boston Evening Transcript , July 22, 1864 A Meeting with Jefferson Davis: July 1864	264
Henry Robinson Berkeley: Diary, July 14–24, 1864 Fighting in the Shenandoah: Virginia, July 1864	267
Samuel T. Foster: Diary, July 18–23, 1864 Fighting for Atlanta: Georgia, July 1864	271
John Q. A. Dennis to Edwin M. Stanton, July 26, 1864 "Take my children from those men": Massachusetts, July 1864	278
Benjamin F. McIntyre: Diary, July 29, 1864 "A melancholy accident": Texas, July 1864	280
David G. Farragut: General Orders Nos. 10 and 11, July 12 and 29, 1864 Preparing for Battle: Gulf of Mexico, July 1864	283
Stephen Minot Weld: Diary, July 30, 1864, and Memoir from 1912 The Battle of the Crater: Virginia, July 1864	286
William Pegram to Virginia Johnson Pegram, August 1, 1864 "Murder them in cold blood": Virginia, July 1864	291
C. Chauncey Burr: from The Old Guard , August 1864 "This abominable despotism": New York, August 1864	294
Edgeworth Bird to Sallie Bird, August 4, 1864 "Retribution at last": Virginia, August 1864	303
Benjamin F. Wade and Henry Winter Davis: To the Supporters of the Government, August 5, 1864 "This dictatorial usurpation": August 1864	307
Robert Garlick Hill Kean: Diary, August 7, 1864 "Stern retaliation": Virginia, August 1864	319

Mathella Page Harrison: Diary, August 17, 1864 "Smoke and flame": Virginia, August 1864	322
Abraham Lincoln: Memorandum on Probable Failure of Reelection, August 23, 1864 Washington, D.C., August 1864	324
Benjamin F. Butler to Robert Ould, August 27, 1864 Exchanging Prisoners: Virginia, August 1864	325
Robert Toombs to Alexander H. Stephens, August 30, 1864 Defending Atlanta: Georgia, August 1864	333
Platform of the Democratic National Convention, August 30, 1864 "Four years of failure": Illinois, August 1864	336
James R. Gilmore: Our Visit to Richmond, September 1864 "We must conquer": September 1864	338
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, September 2, 1864 Requesting Reinforcements: Virginia, September 1864	358
Spottswood Rice to His Children and to Kitty Diggs, September 3, 1864 "My children is my own": Missouri, September 1864	362
Thomas Bramlette to Abraham Lincoln, September 3, 1864 Preserving "our own race": Kentucky, September 1864	365
Gideon Welles: Diary, September 3, 1864 "Shouting for McClellan": Washington, D.C., September 1864	368
Clement L. Vallandigham to George B. McClellan, September 4, 1864 Political Advice: Ohio, September 1864	370
Kate Stone: Diary, September 5, 1864 "The wrath to come": Louisiana, September 1864	371
George Templeton Strong: Diary, September 5-8, 1864 "Audacious infamy": New York, September 1864	373
George B. McClellan to the Democratic Nomination Committee, September 8, 1864 Accepting the Nomination: New Jersey, September 1864	377
James A. Connolly to Mary Dunn Connolly, September 11, 1864 Jonesboro and Atlanta: Georgia, September 1864	380

William T. Sherman to James M. Calhoun and Others, September 12, 1864 "War is cruelty": Georgia, September 1864	384
Rachel Ann Wicker to John A. Andrew, September 12, 1864 Equal Pay for Black Soldiers: Ohio, September 1864	387
Alexander McKinley to Samuel Francis Du Pont, September 18, 1864 A Report from Mobile Bay: Alabama, September 1864	389
Henry Robinson Berkeley: Diary, September 19, 1864 Battle of Winchester: Virginia, September 1864	396
Jefferson Davis: Speech at Macon, September 23, 1864 Georgia, September 1864	399
Elizabeth Blair Lee to Samuel Phillips Lee, September 24, 1864 A Cabinet Resignation: Maryland, September 1864	403
Jefferson Davis: Speech at Columbia, October 4, 1864 South Carolina, October 1864	406
Address of the Colored National Convention, October 6, 1864 A Call for Political Equality: New York, October 1864	414
William T. Sherman to Ulysses S. Grant, October 9, 1864 "Make Georgia howl": Georgia, October 1864	432
Stephen Dodson Ramseur to Ellen Richmond Ramseur, October 10, 1864 "One great desert": Virginia, October 1864	434
John B. Jones: Diary, October 10–13, 1864 Desertion and "despotism": Virginia, October 1864	437
Samuel Francis Du Pont to William King Hall, October 13, 1864 England and the Civil War: Delaware, October 1864	442
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, October 18, 1864 War News: North Carolina, October 1864	448
Francis Lieber: Lincoln or McClellan, October 1864 Unity and Civil Freedom: New York, October 1864	450
George Templeton Strong: Diary, November 9, 1864 Election Results: New York, November 1864	458

John Hay: Diary, November 11, 1864 Reading a Sealed Paper: Washington, D.C., November 1864	460
John S. Mosby to Philip H. Sheridan, November 11, 1864 Retaliatory Executions: Virginia, November 1864	463
Jane Kamper: Statement Regarding Her Emancipation, November 14, 1864 A Slaveowner's Deception: Maryland, November 1864	465
Maria Lydig Daly: Diary, November 15, 1864 "Vox populi, vox dei": New York, November 1864	466
James A. Connolly: Diary, November 17–23, 1864 Sherman's March: Georgia, November 1864	468
John Wilkes Booth: "To whom it may concern," November 1864 "The bitter end": November 1864	479
Henry Adams to Charles Francis Adams Jr., November 25, 1864 Lincoln's Relection: London, November 1864	483
Joseph Miller: Statement Regarding His Family, November 26, 1864 "My boy was dead": Kentucky, November 1864	486
Samuel T. Foster: Diary, November 30–December 1, 1864 Battle of Franklin: Tennessee, November–December 1864	489
Abraham Lincoln: Annual Message to Congress, December 6, 1864 Washington, D.C., December 1864	493
Henry Nutt to Zebulon B. Vance, December 12, 1864 Reports of a Slave Insurrection: North Carolina, December 1864	510
John Chipman Gray to John C. Ropes, December 14, 1864 Meeting Sherman: Georgia, December 1864	514
John White Geary to Mary Geary, December 17, 1864 Besieging Savannah: Georgia, December 1864	519
Mary S. Mallard: Journal, December 15–21, 1864 Union Looters: Georgia, December 1864	522
Harper's Weekly : Retaliation, January 7, 1865 "The torture of loyal men": New York, January 1865	536

Howell Cobb to James A. Seddon, January 8, 1865 "The most pernicious idea": Georgia, January 1865	538
Catherine Edmondston: Diary, January 9, 1865 "The birthright of the South": North Carolina, January 1865	541
Petition of the Colored Citizens of Nashville to the Union Convention of Tennessee, January 9, 1865 The Right to Vote: Tennessee, January 1865	546
Robert E. Lee to Andrew Hunter, January 11, 1865 Enlisting Slaves "without delay": Virginia, January 1865 . . .	554
Meeting of Colored Ministers with Edwin M. Stanton and William T. Sherman, January 12, 1865 "To have land": Georgia, January 1865	558
William T. Sherman: Special Field Orders No. 15, January 16, 1865 Land for Freedmen: Georgia, January 1865	566
Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, January 31, 1865 Washington, D.C., January 1865	569
George W. Julian: Journal, February 1, 1865 "The greatest event": Washington, D.C., February 1865	570
Robert Garlick Hill Kean: Diary, February 5, 1865 Peace Talks: Virginia, February 1865	572
John H. Stringfellow to Jefferson Davis, February 8, 1865 "We must emancipate": Virginia, February 1865	576
Henry Highland Garnet: A Memorial Discourse, February 12, 1865 "Let slavery die": Washington, D.C., February 1865	583
Emma LeConte: Diary, February 17–18, 1865 The Burning of Columbia: South Carolina, February 1865 . .	598
Luther Rice Mills to John Mills, March 2, 1865 Confederate Deserters: Virginia, March 1865	609
Abraham Lincoln: Second Inaugural Address, March 4, 1865 Washington, D.C., March 1865	612
Frederick Douglass: from Life and Times of Frederick Douglass "A sacred effort": Washington, D.C., March 1865	615

Roanoke Island Freedmen to Abraham Lincoln and to Edwin M. Stanton, March 9, 1865 "We have work faithful": North Carolina, March 1865	618
George Templeton Strong: Diary, March 10, 1865 "The death flurry of a whale": New York, March 1865	623
Alpheus S. Williams to His Daughter, March 12, 1865 Marching through the Carolinas: North Carolina, March 1865	626
Charles Sumner to John Bright, March 13, 1865 Land and Votes: Washington, D.C., March 1865	629
Frances Johnson: Statement Regarding Her Whipping and Escape, March 25, 1865 "Give me a thousand": Kentucky, March 1865	632
Clarissa Burdett: Statement Regarding Her Whipping and Escape, March 27, 1865 "A very cruel man": Kentucky, March 1865	635
John B. Jones: Diary, April 2, 1865 "Awaiting my fate": Virginia, April 1865	637
Sallie Brock: from Richmond During the War The Fall of Richmond: Virginia, April 1865	641
George Templeton Strong: Diary, April 3, 1865 "Gloria in excelsis deo": New York, April 1865	650
William Gordon McCabe to Mary Pegram, April 4, 1865 "This peerless comrade": Virginia, April 1865	653
Thomas Morris Chester to the Philadelphia Press , April 4 and 6, 1865 Occupying Richmond: Virginia, April 1865	656
Gideon Welles: Diary, April 7, 1865 Southern "arrogance and folly": Washington, D.C., April 1865	668
Ulysses S. Grant to Robert E. Lee, April 9, 1865 Surrender Terms: Virginia, April 1865	671
Robert E. Lee: General Orders No. 9, April 10, 1865 A Commander's Farewell: Virginia, April 1865	673
Elizabeth Keckly: from Behind the Scenes Lincoln's Assassination: Washington, D.C., April 1865	675

George Templeton Strong: Diary, April 15, 1865 "A fearful, gigantic crime": New York, April 1865	684
Gideon Welles: Diary, April 18, 1865 The President's Deathbed: Washington, D.C., April 1865	688
William T. Sherman to Ulysses S. Grant or Henry W. Halleck, April 18, 1865 A Political Agreement: North Carolina, April 1865	696
Sarah Morgan: Diary, April 19, 1865 "It is all murder": Louisiana, April 1865	700
Robert E. Lee to Jefferson Davis, April 20, 1865 Explaining Surrender: Virginia, April 1865	703
Jefferson Davis to Varina Howell Davis, April 23, 1865 Fleeing Defeat: North Carolina, April 1865	705
Stephen Minot Weld to Hannah Minot Weld, April 24, 1865 "Something that haunted us": Virginia, April 1865	709
Samuel T. Foster: Diary, April 18–May 4, 1865 "What were we fighting for": North Carolina, April– May 1865	711
Ellen Renshaw House: Diary, May 2, 1865 "A thousand rumors": Georgia, May 1865	720
Walt Whitman: from Specimen Days "He behaved so brave": Washington, D.C., May 1865	722
New York Herald : The Grandest Military Display in the World, May 24, 1865 "Heroes of the sublimest conflict": May 1865	725
Lois Bryan Adams to the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune , May 24 and 27, 1865 The Grand Review: Washington, D.C., May 1865	728
Gordon Granger: General Orders No. 3, June 19, 1865 "All slaves are free": Texas, June 1865	735
Chronology	737
Biographical Notes	754
Note on the Texts	791
Notes	808
Index	863